Fifth Sunday of Lent

APRIL 10, 2011

This and That.....

I have mailed out an update on the Remember, Restore, Renew Campaign via third class mail this week to all our parishioners and supporters...watch the mailbox!

Thanks to all who prayed for the retreat/talks that I gave for Lent this past week at the Pontifical Josephinum Seminary in Columbus, Ohio. There were over 150 seminarians there and I can assure you that the future priests are earnest, sincere and motivated by service and love.

We are over the half-way point of Lent. Let us not grow weary of our prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Holy Week and Easter are coming upon us soon as is the great feast. Let us prepare by going to one of the Penance Services in our area. Make sure to read and then perhaps pass-on the bulleting insert this week about confession, a smart and concise challenge to us all about the sacrament of reconciliation.

Our teens have applied and are discerning about the next mission trip to the special needs Mustard Seed Orphanage. Keep them in your prayers as we see who God is calling to send in the name of our community. We will offer Easter flowers after all Masses on Easter Sunday to help our orphans in celebrating the Risen Lord.

The work has begun in earnest on the back of St. Thomas More parish hall. The rotted wood shingles have been removed and new ones are being installed. New gutters are being placed over these areas so this doesn't happen again, the crawl space windows are due to arrive soon, and new gutters over the church doors should be in place soon.

A new statue of Our Lady for the parking lot has arrived and will be dedicated in the spring. Thanks to the family that has done this to honor Our Lady and enhance the spiritual presence of our property. Details to follow.

Meetings are taking place to coordinate and execute our feast of St. Thomas More this June 17-19. Mark your calendars for this new and exciting way we will honor our patron. .

Judge Lauren D'Ambra of the Family Court has accepted our nomination to receive the St. Thomas More Medal of Virtue Award this year. She is our first female recipient. More details to follow...congratulations!
