APRIL 11, 2010

He Is Risen Alleluia! Alleluia!

Blessings of the Easter Season! We remain today in the Octave or eight days of one long continuous Easter morning in the Church. The Easter season is a total of fifty days (what a grace after 40 days of Lent!) and ends with Pentecost.

What a special Holy Week of grace and so many people to thank: all those who helped plan and execute our varied and Spirit-filled liturgies, our good clergy, lectors, extraordinary ministers, musicians, servers and MC's and so many others!

Special thanks go out to: our liturgy and decorating committees who labored in quiet and with great diligence; our Confirmation candidates who helped prepare and celebrate our successful stations-in-the-streets; our sacristans Jan Rego and Nicholas Robenhymer; and staffers Donna Nielsen, James Logiodice, Sarah Cullen and Steve Crawford who worked tirelessly above and beyond the call to serve!

We joyfully welcomed and initiated twelve new adults into the Catholic faith at the Vigil Mass and had a special Easter morning with the "window reveal" at St. Veronica. Thanks to all those who sacrificed so much to spiritually enhance our worship space. The Church teaches that all the saints are present at each Eucharistic celebration, and now the Altars of Sacrifice at both our churches are graced by our beautiful patron saints.

We need to remember, of course, our brothers and sisters who are in a terrible way with the historic flooding that occurred. Our only real sustained damage was in the cellar at St. Veronica where a very expensive CPU that monitors security was ruined. We have filed a claim with our insurance company.

The hallway entrance at St. Thomas More is nearly finished less some details and finish work on the hallway doors. Great work also occurred in the St. Thomas More parish hall where parishioners helped "sponge" the walls to fashion a new wallpaper look. Pictures of sacraments are being placed there for our visitors and CCD class attendees.

I have been asked to serve on the search committee for the new principal at Msgr. Clark School. I look forward to helping keep our local Catholic school growing and vibrant.

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Tailon
