JUNE 24, 2012

Congratulations and Welcome Fr. Murphy!

I am so happy to announce that Bishop Tobin has assigned one of our newly ordained priests (ordained this Saturday!) to St. Thomas More. Fr. Murphy is from Riverside, RI. He is a 2004 graduate of Our Lady of Fatima High School in Warren. He attended Providence College and was then assigned to St. John's Seminary in Boston for graduate studies.

Fr. Murphy has had assignments as a seminarian to St. Margaret's, Rumford, St. Paul, Cranston, St. Phillip, Greenville and St. Pius, Westerly. In addition he attended the Institute for Priestly Formation in Creighton University, Nebraska for a summer.

I am blessed to have known Fr. Murphy since he was a young boy at St. Brendan's (my first priestly assignment). He has always been a sincere, devoted and faith-filled person. He has visited us here at St. Thomas More in the past and now will begin his priestly ministry here among us! I could not be more pleased and happy for all of us.

Fr. Murphy will also serve simultaneously as chaplain to Bishop Hendricken High School in Warwick. I know he will bring those young men an inspired priestly presence and service.

I also wish to thank Fr. Fiset for his outstanding priestly dedication and service as he moves on this week to the position of Vocation Director for the Diocese of Providence. Let us pledge to pray and support all vocations in the Church.

Special thanks to Terry McGovern and her helpers for making the farewell reception for Fr. Fiset last Sunday special and memorable for all -- a wonderful job!

Our full summer schedule is at hand...nine masses between our two churches...and "Last Call" is back! Let us welcome all our passing through guests with joy and generosity.

God bless,

Fr. Taillon
