The Assumption...what does it mean for us?

This year the Feast of the Assumption falls on a Sunday which means two things: there is no holy day of obligation this year since it is on a Sunday and all of us truly celebrate this important and wonderful feast!

Mary remains the perfect disciple for us to emulate, imitate and follow. But she does not remain aloof and outside of our own journey of faith. She is not simply the perfect athlete in the life of faith that we all admire but know we simply cannot achieve that record. No, instead she is in relationship with us and the Church on our own journey and advocates for us along the way when we fall. Today's feast is special in that we meditate on the moment of Mary's earthly death. It is at this moment the Church believes that she was assumed body and soul into heaven where she is with Jesus and our Heavenly Father. It is a foretaste of what we will taste at the Last Judgment or earlier if Christ returns before our own death. It makes sense that this be the case since she is redeemed and saved by Christ. This gift of the Assumption flows from the gift that she was without sin as the Mother of God.

It is with great joy that today we bless and unveil the new outdoor statue of Mary and the child Jesus outside of St. Veronica Chapel, a gift to us from the recently closed Sacred Heart Church in Pawtucket, RI. I thought it appropriate to do this in conjunction with our Summer Gathering, and to schedule both on this special holy day.

This week we begin our parish wide/pulpit appeal for the Remember, Restore, Renew Campaign to re-shingle and re-roof our St. Thomas More Church and property. The construction begins tomorrow and should be finished by November 4th. Please prayerfully consider a sacrificial three-year pledge to help us save and secure our beautiful mother church for future generations. As our church is returned to its original look may we also remain strong in the faith like those who came before us. May the tabernacles in our sanctuaries remind us of the gift Mary received at her death and what we have been promised!

Mary, Assumed Body and Soul into heaven, pray for us!

Fr. Taillon
