A Word From Fr. Unsworth

Since I am only the temporary Administrator of the Parish, and the Parish news is not as extensive as it is during the rest of the year, I thought I would offer a series of little articles during the Summer months about the 10 Commandments. Each Commandment tells us something about the importance of our relationship with God and our moral responsibility towards one another. I hope you find this short series helpful.

- Fr. Jack

The 6th Commandment “Thou shalt not commit adultery.”

Most of the time, when we refer to the word “sex” we think of our body, even though sexual acts also involve our mind, our emotions, and even our spirituality. The trouble is, many people try to take sex out of the larger picture, making the gift much less than it was intended by God to be. It would be like taking a fine painting and using it for scrap paper. It destroys the beauty and purpose of the masterpiece. Adding to the problem is that the gift of human sexuality has become a marketing tool to sell products (jeans, perfume, shoes, cars, etc.). The media tells us that sex is “no big deal”. But the reality is that they want only what is in their own best interest, not ours. The moral teachings of the Church are seen today as ‘out of step’ or “too old fashioned”. However, unlike the media, the Church has only our best interest in mind because it teaches that we are all made in the image and likeness of God.

The Church teaches that God created sex for three purposes: To create new life, to express loving union between a man and a woman, and to bring us joy and fulfillment. If sex is only about pleasure, then we are acting only out of instinct, which is what animals do. Here are some issues the 6th Commandment is concerned with:

Marriage: The Sacrament of Marriage is a covenant, not merely a contract (as in the case of a civil marriage). In marriage the expression of sexual love must always be open to the possibility of creating new life. This is why marriage can only be between a man and a woman. While it is possible for two people of the same sex to love each other, their sexual expression of that love is by nature, incapable of creating life and therefore, they are called to a life of chastity just like any of us who remain unmarried. This does not mean that they do not have a place in the community of the Church or that they are not held in love and dignity by God.

Birth Control, In Vitro Fertilization, etc.: The 6th Commandment forbids any violation of the dignity of marriage. Having sexual relations with someone other than your spouse, is obviously wrong. It involves the breaking of the sacred promise to be faithful. Cheating on a spouse jeopardizes the marriage, the family, and the rest of society. Cohabitation is always wrong because the couple live together as if they were married, without the complete commitment of a sacramental marriage.

Pornography: The internet has made this evil more accessible to the young and old alike. Pornography is dangerous because it violates human dignity. It takes the gift of sexuality and makes it an object to be exploited and abused. Pornography can become addictive, leading to serious disrespect and even violence, especially toward women.

There are many other issues associated with the 6th Commandment: rape, sexual abuse, dating, sexism, sexual identity, purity and virginity, celibacy, modesty, just to name a few. As followers of Christ, we are all called to realize that human sexuality, as created by God, is understood to be one of the greatest gifts that God has given to us. Not only does it help to make each of us uniquely different individuals, it also insures the survival of the human race. In so doing, it also serves to bind a couple together in love and understanding. Misused, sexuality can cause much pain and suffering. Learning to properly respond as a sexual person is particularly difficult in society today. Perseverance, prayer, and Christian values can help a couple who are in love, to grow in maturity, love and trust.

SACRISTANS NEEDED

Behind the scenes, there is a great deal of work to do each weekend to open the church. We need to turn on the air conditioning and lights, set up the altar, put out the bulletins, manage the collections so they are securely handled and placed in a safe. After Mass, somebody must take everything away, turn off the lights and lock up.

We have been fortunate over the years to have had several great young students do this job for us. But now they are older and need to move on, and we are in need someone to take on this responsibly every weekend. If you know of a young man or woman who might be interested in helping, while making a stipend, please call the office and let us know. Thank you.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Food That Perishes

It's so easy to do the right thing because we want to tick all the right boxes. We want to live by the law. We want to accomplish the work of God.

Or, at least, we say that we do.

But Jesus tells us that in order to accomplish the work of God, we have to believe in the one he sent. And to believe in Christ is to be filled with the spirit of truth — to do what is right because it is right, not because we want to be filled with good feelings.

What is the difference between doing what is right because you want to be a good Christian, and doing what is right because you believe in Christ?

It's the difference between eating manna and the Eucharist. One fills your stomach and keeps you alive, and nothing more. The other satisfies a hunger you might not have even known you had, or if you did know, you called it by another name — sadness, unfulfillment, fear. One achieves a corporeal goal, and that's the end of it. The other accomplishes something invisibly, secretly, silently, and though there is physical evidence of its work all around us, you have to be shrewd to recognize it.

It's the difference between making a social media post condemning sin and enveloping a sinner (the one at our dinner table, the one on the street, the one staring back at us in the mirror) with love and concern. It's the difference between simply going to Mass and living the Gospel. It's the difference between speaking to God and saying a prayer. It's the difference between telling someone they're wrong and telling them about the truth.

There's nothing wrong doing what is right because we long for heaven, and there's nothing wrong with eating manna if you're starving. But that alone isn't enough. We must also long for the bread of heaven, the bread that gives life to the world.

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.' — John 6:35

Confession

Question:

If God knows everything we do, why do we need to go to Confession?

Answer:

Another term for the Sacrament of Confession is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We go to this sacrament not only to confess our sins, but to be reconciled with God. Of course, this begs the question, "If I can pray to God on my own, why can't I be reconciled to God on my own?" In the seven sacraments, we recognize the importance of community. Sacraments like baptism or matrimony happen in the context of the wider church to remind us of the communal impact of our lives. We are not alone in our walk of faith!

We don't need to confess our sins in front of the whole community – thank God! But going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a tangible reminder that our sins affect not only ourselves and our relationship with God, but others as well. Jesus gave his Apostles authority to forgive sins in his name. Through this sacrament, we are really, truly forgiven by God Himself. We receive an outpouring of grace and strength to sin no more and our relationship with Christ and his Body, the Church, are restored.

Meeting dates are July 9, 16, 23, & 30; August 6, 13, 20, & 27

Maryann Knag will present the Apostolic Fathers—Part II. Last summer, we took up the letters of two of the disciples of St. John, son of Zebedee Ignatius of Antioch and Polycarp of Smyrna, as well as the accounts of their martyrdoms. This reading was so stirring that many requested more study of the documents of the Early Church. There was also great interest in reading Acts of the Apostles, which we will take up next summer.
