July 26th – Saints Anne and Joachim Feast Day

This week the Church will mark the feast day of the grandparents of Jesus and the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I think it is a good time of year to pause and reflect on grandparents. Grandparents are unique in their role in a family. They often have a lot of wisdom and family history.

We celebrate Mother's Day and Father's Day so let us celebrate our own grandparents by praying for them, calling or visiting them.

In my own family I knew my "memere's" more as they both outlived my grandfathers. I have fond memories of one of my grandmothers as always seeming to pull out a half dollar coin when I was little, which was similar to winning the lottery in my small world. It might have been a trick to get me to want to visit her and it worked!

I also remember my other grandmother as being very ill in life. I remember even more so my mother and her siblings faithfully visiting her often in her weakness. This too can teach children a great life lesson.

Anne and Joachim were both people of tremendous faith which they passed on to Mary of course. Today, sadly but importantly, grandparents are often the bulwark of religious formation and spiritual examples within families. I marvel at how many teens choose their grandparents for confirmation sponsors. This is a sign of the respect and inspiration that many provide.

So, celebrate Anne and Joachim by coming to daily Mass on July 26th. Reach out to living grandparents and perhaps utter an Ave for those that have returned to the Lord.

SS Anne and Joachim, pray for our grandparents.

Blessings of summer!

happenings around the parish

My name is Abbie Hedglen and I am a missionary with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS) at George Washington University, but my hometown is South Kingstown, RI. When I am in town, I go to daily mass at St. Thomas More and I have thoroughly enjoyed the liturgy and community here. I have been to many churches, but none seem to have the faith that your community has and that is such a blessing! Father Taillon has generously allowed me to ask your faithful church community for support in my mission. As a FOCUS missionary, I help young adults come to know the person of Jesus and form them as disciples to be sent out to spread the gospel.

To reach my fundraising goal, I am looking for a handful of people to sponsor my mission on a monthly basis so that I may be sent to campus as a full-time missionary ministering to college students. Support from mission partners allows me to give fully to students so they may come to know Christ and fulfill His Great Commission. If you are interested in becoming a monthly sponsor of my mission, please contact me at 401-580-0074 or at abigailhedglen@gmail.com.

*Thank you and God bless,
Abbie Hedglen*

Quo Vadis Days is a camp for incoming 9th – 12th grade boys (including recent graduates). It seeks to empower young men through friendship, faith, and vocational discernment.

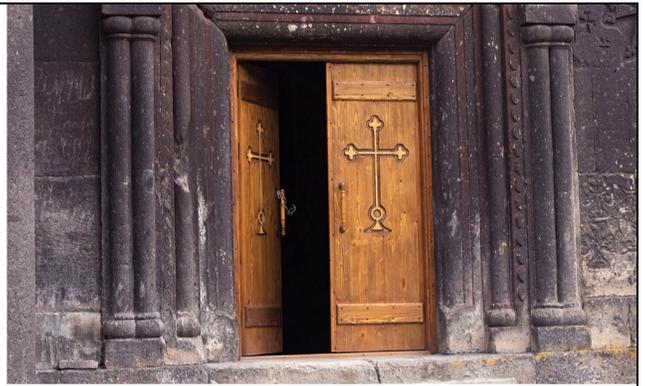

The theme of this year's camp is inspired by the life and witness of Blessed Carlo Acutis, a Catholic Italian teenager who died in 2006, was beatified Oct. 10, 2020 in Assisi. He has become a patron for the youth.

“Quo Vadis” is Latin for, “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. We know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will.

Where is God calling you to go? How will you respond?

"AND I TELL YOU,
ASK AND YOU WILL RECEIVE;
SEEK AND YOU WILL FIND;
KNOCK AND THE DOOR
WILL BE OPENED TO YOU."

PRAY LIKE JESUS

Have you ever watched a master chef at work or a professional musician or athlete and wondered "How do they do that? They make it look so easy." We are naturally attracted to someone who excels at something, a person whose heart is obviously in their work, and we can't help but wonder if we are capable of anything like that. This was likely true for the disciples as well. They had seen Jesus at prayer on many occasions (this is especially true in Luke's Gospel) and it was obvious that someone, somehow was shaping/transforming the life of their teacher. Abraham, too, gives us an example of a conversation with God that goes beyond the ordinary approach to divine petitioning. Meanwhile, Psalm 138 assures us that when we cry for help God will answer—for Christ has become our mediator and we are one with him in baptism.

SNAKES AND SCORPIONS AND PRAYERS? OH, MY!

How often do we hear about snakes and scorpions at Mass? Well, today we do! Jesus uses these frightful (to most of us!) images for their shock value in order to emphasize how graciously and unfailingly our Father in heaven cares for us. The first reading sets the stage for our reflection. Who can hear the story of Abraham negotiating with God in the first reading and not smile at his audacity? The middle Eastern custom of bartering likely honed Abraham's skills in that arena. He even appeals to God's sense of honor, saying, "Far be it from you to do such a thing" [as to wipe out the innocent with the guilty]. Have we not all bargained with God at one time or another when we were desperately in need?

YOU HAVE HEARD THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH

Notice that the very first words of today's Gospel are "Jesus was praying." Of course, the disciples would be curious about a practice that was so central to Jesus' daily life. He was obviously good at it. Perhaps they wanted to know how they could more easily "influence" God themselves! They wanted to know what would work. Luke's version of the beloved Lord's Prayer (one of two found in the Gospels) is highlighted today in response to the disciples' request.

The two parables following the Lord's Prayer teach us about prayer both from the point of view of the one who prays and from God's point of view. The parable of the friend who knocks on the door at midnight illustrates prayer from the point of view someone who urgently needs something. Persistence is the key. The last section of the Gospel offers us a glimpse of prayer from God's point of view. If you seek, you will find; if you knock, the door will be opened. With Jesus as our mediator, we are assured of a hearing before our Father in heaven who is waiting to give good gifts to his children.

TODAY'S READINGS

Genesis 18:20–32
Psalm 138:1–2, 2–3, 6–7, 7–8
Colossians 2:12–14
Luke 11:1–13

As the Director of Faith Formation, one of my greatest blessings is the celebration of First Holy Communion. Every year I am struck by the children's love and closeness to Jesus which strengthens my own faith. These children most likely know more about the Eucharist than most adults. In fact, recent studies have shown that only one-third of Catholics believe in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. As heartbreaking as that statistic is, there is hope.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has launched a multi-year National Eucharistic Revival Project. Why a revival on the Eucharist? According to the Revival Project's website, their mission is to "renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist." This revival aims to inspire and educate. Phase one of the revival is on a diocesan level which began on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, June 19th of this year, and will end on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi next year. The second phase will foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level and will start on June 11, 2023 and go until July 17, 2024. To learn more about this initiative, here is the link to the National Eucharistic Revival's website - <https://www.eucharisticrevival.org/> and a link to a video, titled, The Eucharist: Source of Our Healing and Hope - <https://youtu.be/BNSxxqPfvHo>.

I want to share with you an inspiring story about a teenager named Carlo Acutis. Like most boys his age, he enjoyed playing soccer and video games. Carlo also had an interest in computer programming. However, his greatest love was for Jesus in the Eucharist. After receiving First Holy Communion, his desire for the Eucharist grew. Carlo would tell his friends, "The more we receive the Eucharist, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of heaven." Carlo would explain that "Jesus is really present in the world, just as when, in the time of the Apostles, the disciples could see him in flesh and blood walking the streets of Jerusalem." His most famous quote is, "The Eucharist is my highway to heaven." With profound statements such as these, you may be thinking that Carlo's parents were devout Catholics and brought him to Mass often. On the contrary, Carlo's parents were nominal Catholics and rarely attended Mass. It was Carlo who managed to get himself to Mass. His mother admits that it was Carlo's love for the Eucharist that inspired her to start going to Mass. At the age of 11, his focus became making known to others how important the Eucharist is in developing an intimate relationship with Jesus. So, he used his computer skills to build a website listing the Eucharistic miracles of the world.

At the age of 15, Carlo died on October 12, 2006, from an aggressive form of leukemia. He was beatified in Assisi, Italy on October 10, 2020. We can all learn much from Carlo's short life. Blessed Carlo Acutis, pray for us as we start this National Eucharistic Revival!

God bless,

MaryTheresa Conca

ST. THOMAS MORE ENDOWMENT FUND

PLANT A SEED, CREATE A Legacy

When someone returns to God, they leave a physical void in the parish and their family. When someone makes a planned gift to the endowment fund, there is a perpetual reminder of their importance to the faith community. It is a way to continue to support the parish they loved in life even after death.

Memorial and planned gifts to a parish endowment* have more than a one-time impact. Because they are endowed, these gifts help generations of parishioners -children, families, elderly. The value of these gifts extends beyond the initial monetary amount. The true value of these gifts is the fact that it will affect real lives whether it be the funding of religious education programming, assisting local ministries, mission trips to third world countries, or improvements to the physical parish plant and facilities.

We are called by God to be stewards of the gifts He has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure. When we include the parish in our estate plans, we commit ourselves to further the Kingdom of God. By helping to secure the long-term financial security of the parish family, our treasure is used to serve future generations. This is stewardship. This is evangelization. This is faith.

Keep the faith and the memories alive. Consider a personal designation to the St. Thomas More Parish Endowment Fund. For more information about memorial donations and legacy giving, please contact Lynn Bamford, Director of Stewardship 401-789-7682 or stmbamford@gmail.com.
