To Jesus, he was just “Dad”

Although he now lives with God, I was blessed with a father who took his responsibility very seriously and who wanted nothing more than to show his love for us by raising his 5 children to be respectful, honest, hard-working and faithful to God. He didn't care if we were rich or famous, he only asked that we not embarrass him too much. Today I repeat some words I wrote a few years ago on Father's Day and I dedicate them to him.

In early spring, I stopped at a greeting card store and found cards that exclaimed Happy Mother's Day, Dad! and Happy Father's Day, Mom! Even greeting cards are telling us that parenthood in America is changing. "Family" can now mean something other than a man, a woman, and their biological children.

In this era of great social confusion about marriage and family life, no one is taking more hits than the traditional father. "Does a mother need a husband?" people are wondering. What does a father do beyond conception? Can't someone else fill in for him?

Perhaps, then, St. Joseph is the perfect patron for a society that has lost its moorings regarding parenthood in general and fatherhood in particular. Joseph was the perfect father, but he fulfilled this role in a society where family life was undergoing great change and, in a family where his position was unusual, to say the least.

After all, let's face it: Joseph's fatherhood was ambiguous and unique. He played absolutely no physical part in the conception of Jesus, whereas today's father is sometimes judged superfluous once a child is conceived. Joseph might have adopted the hands-off strategy of disengagement so often recommended to stepparents. Instead, Joseph embraced his calling so fully that everyone in Nazareth thought of Jesus as "the carpenter's son" (Matt 13:55).

Many in today's society no longer feel it necessary or important to know a child's father. Non-marital births are generally accepted, and their number has increased 600% in just three decades. And yet, for all our blasé acceptance of children entering the world without a socially recognized and responsible father, paternity remains an important issue for all of us.

St. Joseph, who took a countercultural stand in accepting Jesus, can help today's fathers buck their own culture. For biological fathers who are tempted to shirk responsibility for the children they have helped bring into this world, Joseph models acceptance of God-given responsibility. For men who are called to some kind of non-biological paternity as stepfathers or adoptive fathers, Joseph models generous, accepting love.

Joseph, the carpenter of Nazareth, worked hard to meet the physical needs of his family. St. Thérèse of Lisieux imagined him this way: "I can see him sawing, then drying his forehead from time to time.... How many troubles and disappointments! How many times did others make complaints to good St. Joseph? How many times did they refuse to pay him for his work?" Whether it be crafting tables or lugging roof timbers, St. Joseph turned every project into an expression of deep love for God.

St. Joseph is, of course, the prime model of the diligent breadwinner who assumes responsibility for the needs of others. He is the perfect patron for every father today.

"Father" Jack

FROM YOUR DIOCESE

FROM BISHOP RICHARD G. HENNING

GOD IS LOVE

Each year in June, the Church observes the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The devotion was originally proposed by Fr. John Eudes in the 1600's and spread far and wide through the witness of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque.

The devotion is founded upon the biblical truth that God is Love. Notice that the holy scriptures go beyond saying that God loves to proclaim that God is in Himself a communion of love. This is part of the same mystery that we celebrated last week on Trinity Sunday.

The Sacred Heart devotion also personalizes this truth. Our Lord is the revelation of the Heart of God. Miraculously, the only begotten Son has loved us with a heart of flesh – a heart wounded to deliver us from sin and death.

The artistic expressions of the Sacred Heart draw upon the biblical language and imagery. Sometimes they are images of Jesus pointing to his radiant and wounded heart. At other times the image is of the Sacred Heart itself accompanied by imagery of the passion such as the crown of thorns. There is a particularly beautiful work of art of this kind in the sanctuary of St. Patrick's Church on Smith Hill. The images are actually a part of the devotion as the Church encouraged the faithful to put such images in their homes and workplaces.

The other two major components of the devotion are the novena prayers and the First Friday devotions. All of these prayers invoke the loving mercy of the Divine Savior. The devotions are a beautiful way to seek particular petitions, to pray for others, and to implore that mercy when we have offended the Lord's most beautiful, gracious and loving heart. Sometimes the offenses are our own and sometimes we seek to do reparation for the sins of the world.

I remind us of these gifts of the Lord in part because of the approaching feast, but I also wish to express some specific ways in which the novena, feast, and devotions might help our own particular circumstances. During the month of June, there are many young people celebrating milestones and graduating from school. This devotion is a beautiful way to give a spiritual gift by praying for them by name or even thinking of particular intentions or graces that might aid them in their lives. The young have so many challenges and too much sadness in our culture and I believe that we should support and encourage them in every way possible – including our prayers.

I also encourage us to consider the mercy of God and the value of reparation for sin. Certainly we would personally benefit from the humble admission of our faults, the grace of a good confession, and a profound trust in the loving mercy of the Lord.

We may also wish to consider the need for God's mercy for our world where violence, exploitation and selfishness abound. In April, I wrote to you about the suffering of survivors of sexual abuse. I pray the Sacred Heart Novena for their healing and to ask the Lord to cleanse the Church and the world of that terrible sin and to renew and heal survivors.

There is also the sad fact that since 2020 some 300 Catholic Churches have been vandalized in the United States. Many of those attacks involved damage to images of Our Lady or Our Lord. Most tragically there have been some instances of the desecration of the Blessed Sacrament. These offenses along with the wider contempt for faith and the frequent crude mockery of the faith and of the Lord require us to do spiritual reparation and hope in that Divine Love that radiates from the Sacred Heart.

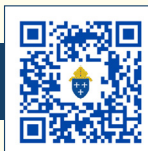

Perhaps you already pray these devotion regularly. Maybe you remember them from childhood or never had the opportunity to learn them. In whatever circumstances I encourage us to embrace this beautiful feast, its efficacious devotions and the truth of the Lord's healing love. Let this month of June, the month of the Sacred Heart, be our time to proclaim that GOD IS LOVE!

Summer Bible is coming!!!

Maryann Knag will present the Apostolic Fathers—Part II. Last summer, we took up the letters of two of the disciples of St. John, son of Zebedee Ignatius of Antioch and Polycarp of Smyrna, as well as the accounts of their martyrdoms.

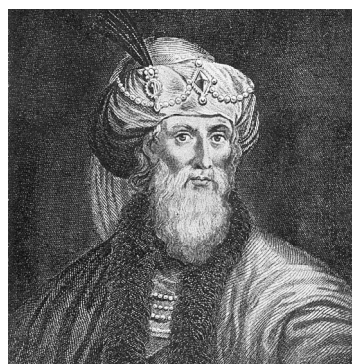

This reading was so stirring that many requested more study of the documents of the Early Church. There was also great interest in reading Acts of the Apostles, which we will take up next summer.

St. Justyn Martyr

This summer's reading will include the Didache, the earliest Church manual; the Epistle of Barnabas; the Letter of Pliny the Younger to Emperor Trajan about the Christians; the First Apology of Justin Martyr, excerpts from Josephus, the Jewish historian (who mentions Jesus, John the Baptist and James, the brother of Jesus). Also, fragments from Bishop Papias, Quadratus of Athens, and the Apology of Aristides.

If you are interested in the Early Church, this class is for you! You are there in the first and second centuries as you read these passages.

Flavius Josephus, the Jewish historian

The Bible Group will meet in the Parish Hall on Tuesday mornings from 9:40-11:10 following the 9AM Mass, beginning July 9th. Meeting dates are July 9, 16, 23, & 30; August 6, 13, 20, & 27.

Links to the readings can be found at www.earlychristianwritings.com.

St. Thérèse of Lisieux

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-1897) was a French Carmelite sister whose autobiography has inspired Catholics across the world to deepen their relationship with God. She died at 24 from tuberculosis and is currently the youngest person to be named a Doctor of the Church.

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.
