OCTOBER 29, 2023 - THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

STTHOMASMORERI.ORG | PARISH OFFICE 401.789.7682

All Saints' ~ All Souls'

As we are transitioning into fall and winter, the Church wisely calls to mind the ultimate transition of entering into eternal life by our commemoration of All Saints' and All Souls' day.

We celebrate All Saints' on November 1st, which means every soul who has entered fully into the presence of God. They are our models and intercessors, and are friends of Jesus who help us. We will have Masses at 9AM at St Thomas More and at 7PM at St. Veronica.

November 2nd is All Souls' Day, a day we pray for all of our dead and in a particular way, those holy souls who are in purgatory. Many erroneously believe the Church no longer believes in the doctrine of purgatory, but that is simply not true. It is a doctrine rooted in the mercy and the love of God, and reminds us of the mystical body of Christ into which we were gifted at our baptism. This is why masses are offered for the repose of the souls of our deceased, and why rosaries and prayers should be offered for them as well. I think All Souls' day is a perfect day to visit the graves of loved ones to offer prayers or bring a flower.

Fr. Taillon

Prayer for Holy Souls

(Diary of St. Faustina)

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls suffering in purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg you, by the sorrowful passion of Your Son, and by all the bitterness, with which His most sacred soul was flooded, manifest Your mercy to the souls who are under your scrutiny. Look upon them in no other way than through the wounds of Jesus, your dearly beloved Son; for we firmly believe there is no limit to Your goodness and compassion. Have mercy Lord on the poor souls in purgatory. May the souls of the dead, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

The 2nd collection next weekend, will be for Little Sisters of the Poor at the Jeanne Jugan Residence, Pawtucket.

Please join us in welcoming the Little Sisters of the Poor to our parish next weekend, Nov. 4 & 5. They are extending a heartfelt invitation to our parish to share in their work through our financial support and the support of our prayer. The Little Sisters of the Poor first arrived in Providence in 1881 when seven Little Sisters arrived from France to begin their work of caring for the needy Elderly. The foundation of this Home was the generous support of the community upon which it was built as were those that followed, including their present home, Jeanne Jugan Residence. This great network of sharing continues to this very day. Today at Jeanne Jugan Residence their mission continues and they offer hospitality and care for 100 needy elderly men and women. The Little Sisters continue to count on the community and their continued and generous support. To learn more about the mission of the Little Sisters of the Poor, see their website at www.littlesistersofthepoorpawtucket.org. The Little Sisters look forward to sharing their work with you and thank you in advance for sharing in their mission.

Gospel Reflections Group

All are welcome to join our informal discussion group which meets on Mondays from 10-11:30 AM in the parish hall. Over coffee & refreshments, we read and reflect on the Gospels of the coming week and share our personal insights of those readings.

Men's Bible Study

Our parish has a very active group of men who meet each Saturday morning in the parish hall at 7:30 AM to discuss the Sunday scripture readings. This is very informal and all are invited to join.

Pennies for the Poor

The small donation boxes on the church walls labeled "Pennies for the Poor" goes to the Diocesan Dire Emergency Fund in South County, which helps with rental assistance, utilities and prescriptions. Thank you.

Prayer Chain Ministry

If you know someone who would like extra prayers, please call Jean at 783-3403 to express your request. Volunteers are needed and welcome to join this important ministry.

St. Vincent dePaul clothing bins

Accepts clothing and shoes. Bins located at the back of the St. Thomas More parking lot, inside the white fence.
